

Clarinet Lessons with Dr. Anna Roach

- Over 15 years of experience teaching all levels and ages from beginner to college.
- Holds doctorate in clarinet performance from Texas Tech University.
- Focuses on student-centered learning, where the instruction is tailored specifically to the individual student and their needs.

Clarinet lessons focus on:

- Immediate goals such as preparing for CODA, Regional Contests, All-State Contest, and solo and ensemble competitions.
- Long-term goals like improving tone and technique or taking an audition for college.
- Comprehensive musicianship including music theory, and history, famous clarinetists, and musical terminology.

I offer flexible times so that I can work around conflicts or other school activities!!
